This comedic theatre piece deals with not only peer relationships but the common issue of the generation gap as we follow the lives of the main characters that appear in the previous play. The ending to the story is unfinished and it is up to the students to write their own! Students who have completed the first two (Jeunesse en action) kits can continue their rapid fluency development in the third-level kit, Qui arrive ce soir? As in the other kits, vocabulary and grammatical structures are introduced and reinforced through gestures, drama and songs. Your class will love the second play in a trilogy about a high school student who wins a girl's heart with his talent and his caring attitude. In this play, she invites him home to meet her parents! Au Canada, les enfants en savent beaucoup sur les communications électroniques et tiennent à leur vie privée, mais ils ne soupçonnent pas toujours les risques que posent les nouvelles technologies de communications numériques. Le Commissariat à la protection de la vie privée du Canada a produit une bande dessinée romanesque intitulée Branchés et futés : Internet et vie privée pour aider les jeunes à naviguer en ligne en comprenant bien les risques d'atteinte à leur vie privée. La bande dessinée de 12 pages s'adresse aux préadolescents et aux jeunes adolescents. Élaborée à la lumière d'observations formulées par des jeunes, cette bande dessinée raconte l'histoire d'un frère et d'une sœur qui découvrent (parfois à la dure) les risques d'atteinte à la vie privée que posent les sites de réseautage social, les appareils mobiles, les textos et les jeux en ligne.

Cet opus revisite le célèbre conte prenant comme point de départ la jalousie d'une marâtre vaniteuse à l'égard de sa belle-fille, qu'un miroir magique a identifiée comme étant la plus belle femme du royaume. Sa belle-mère ayant ordonné à un chasseur de la tuer et de lui ramener son foie et ses poumons, Blanche-Neige trouve refuge dans la maison des sept nains. Sa rivale réussit néanmoins à la retrouver et, sous son déguisement, à la convaincre de croquer dans une pomme empoisonnée qui la plonge dans un sommeil artificiel dont la tire un prince, qu'elle épouse en justes noces.

Cuillères is a game that reinforces subject-verb agreement in French. The first student who gets two correct pairs of subject and verb agreement cards (four cards in total) grabs a spoon from the middle of the group, and the other students must grab the remaining spoons. The student who does not grab fast enough and is left without a spoon receives a letter in the spelling of "Cuillères." At the end of the game, the student with the least letter wins! This game focuses on present tense regular -re verbs, including: rendre, défendre, descendre, entendre, vendre, perdre, and pendre.

IJS 66 pce 2018 Fluency Fast

written by Karen Rowan
Don Quichotte, le dernier chevalier is an amusing, ironic and - at the same time - tragic story. Don Quichotte is an ordinary Spaniard with an extraordinary imagination who believes that he must achieve great feats to honor a lady. He falls in love with a waitress that he considers to be the ideal lady. He and his companion, Sancho Panza, have adventures in which Don Quichotte is always mistaken about what he finds along the way while Sancho sees what is really there. The story is based on Miguel de Cervantes' The Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote de La Mancha, published in the 17th century. Many consider it to be the best book of fictions ever written.

Verbathon acts both as a method for teaching and as a means for students to solidify the lessons learned through application. It incorporates interactive learning by touch and it shows students that language is systematic. The educator uses a customized wallchart and a set of cards, (both part of the Verbathon Kit), together with various lesson strategies provided, to show students the rules of verb application and sentence structure. Students learn by playing and manipulating cards. The Verbathon teaching kit is versatile and can be used to play many different games to reinforce language skills. Verbathon has been shown in classroom settings to effectively capture attention and foster a strong sense of interest. RÉQUEST! is a powerful teaching tool based on a student empowered cooperative and global approach to learning. It is a quiz-type game strategy where the students form the questions and answers themselves. The students then play against the other in separate teams creating a fun atmosphere. (440)

AIM: Les trois petits cochons 1A

IJ AIM Language Learning Inc

In this traditional story, the three pigs set out to build their own houses. The first pig builds a house of straw, the second builds a house of wood, and the third builds a house of bricks. The wolf arrives at each of the first two houses, and because they are built of weaker materials, blows them down. The first and second pigs each run to the brick house of the third pig, who has put a pot of hot soup on the fire. When the wolf tries to enter the house of the third pig, and cannot blow the house down, he climbs on to the roof, and goes down the chimney. He falls into the pot of hot soup and leaves the house, running out the door. The three pigs happily wave good-bye to the wolf as he runs off. This story is the first play of the Histoires en action ! program. It is a very popular play with teachers and students. Its familiarity and subsequent predictability prove to be an excellent entry point for students learning a new language, or those beginning this program for the first time. Les trois petits cochons is very repetitive and easy to learn. Students will be able to chime in to the words of the pigs or the wolf, even upon first presentation, if encouraged to do so. The vocabulary is predictable, as students come to the storyline in French with a context and background from the English version – a definite plus when trying to put students at ease, and this will help them to learn new vocabulary quickly. This kit is for students with no prior knowledge of French, and takes them through the first 50 hours of instruction. Students are introduced to approximately 500 words. Pablo Picasso's mural Guernica is on display during the 1937 International Exposition in Paris. Opposing sides of French politics, Charles de Gaulle and Maréchal Pétain, quickly realize that the painting contains clues to the whereabouts of the supernatural Spear of Destiny. Its occult power can change the outcome of the French Resistance, just as it has done in other conflicts throughout history. As Pauline's imagination begins to decipher the hidden symbols, Marechal Petain's secret agents are not far behind her. They are ready to capture the Spear at the most opportune moment, convinced that impulsive Pauline will betray her quest for the Spear.
